Geraldine and Ricky

Ventriloquist At Liberty Saturday

Saturday April 10 at 1:30 p. m. in the Fellowship Hall of Liberty Baptist Church you can see and hear one of the nations finest Ventriloquist. Miss Murry and Ricky is now working with the Daniels Revival Team which is holding a Revival at the Thomas Road Baptist Church. We are grateful to them for letting us use her for a few minutes during their Revival.

Last summer Miss Murry and Ricky had the opportunity to work at Disneyland in California. They were so impressed by her talent that she was offered a contract of $100,000 per year ($375.00 per day) to work for them. Due to the fact that she would have to work every Sunday and could not use material about her Savior, she declined the offer. She has dedicated her talent totally to Christ. Working with the Daniels team, she is able to witness for her Saviour all over the U.S.A. and other parts of the world.

Miss Murry is a personal friend of the Charles Barkers'. Mr. Barker encourages you to hear Geraldine and Ricky this Saturday at 1:30 p.m. Dr. Thomas Lea is pastor of Liberty Baptist Church.

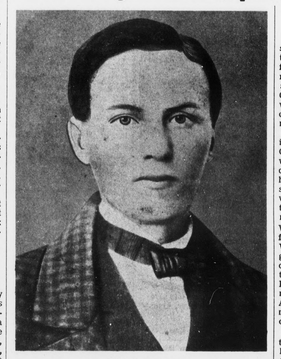
Gift For Firemen

Expensive things come in small packages say Fire Chief C. R. Wooldridge and Jaycee treasurer Floyd Williams. Chief Wooldridge is holding a turbo-jet nozzle to be used on the tank truck. This one piece of equipment costs $154. The turbo-jet gives the fire fighter a choice of either a concentrated stream of water or a wide-arc spray. Jaycees, following a successful "Radio Day", Halloween Candy Sale, Country Music Show and Apple Butter Day, have been able to give money and equipment to a number of causes.

A Story For April 9th

by Calvin H. Robinson



John Browning

Through all these years, as a scrivener of sorts, I have sought to come up with a special story for April 9 issue of this widely-read newspaper, and then again something special for the Christmas issue. Friday of this week is April 9, and anniversary of "The Gentlemen's Peace" made at Appomattox in 1865.

My friend, Bro. Ralph Barlow is a scholar and a fine Virginia Gentleman. A few days ago he visited me at my modest residence on Martha Street, and he had some interesting papers to show. One item was a letter written in 1902 and addressed to Mrs. F. E. Barlow, Vermillion, Virginia. Where's Vermilion? The answer is the fine community we know as Vera. I do not know how it got the name Vermilion, nor do I know why it was changed to Vera, but Ralph and I chuckled over memory of the statement of the late Capt C. C. Abbitt that "Appomattox would never amount to anything because it was too close to Vera."

Anyway, there was the letter, and the addressee was Mrs. Florence E. Barlow, the sender J. E. Barlow, general manager of the Elkhorn Coal and Coke Co., Maybeury, West Virginia, dealers in the "Celebrated Pocahontas Smokeless Coal."

One of the letters Ralph brought along was from "uncle Mac" and written June 4, 1863 address to "Ma". He was in need a pair of socks, wished he could be at home at peach time and he added "the troops are in motion, but I do not know what is the intention".

Perhaps most precious of all was a picture of John Browning, uncle of Mrs. Florence Barlow, a handsome lad, who gave his life in The War, at the promising age of nineteen. Oh, so many homes saddened and broken by the curse of War.

But the longest item among those brought me by Ralph Barlow was in the form of a poem, from "Uncle Mac" to his kinfolk in Appomattox. It was dated October 1, 1870.

Among the sage counsels was the urge to go to school, learn to cipher, and to mingle around for "no school is as good as good society!" and ... kept back now. . .will always be awkward and miserable". And this final request: "Tell Mollie to save me some good house apples. She puts them in a dark, cool place, they will keep a long time".

And so, too, will old letters keep a long, long time and be ever interesting to read. And so, too will April 9 at Appomattox always and ever be a special day. It is a time for remembering. Remembering all the heartaches and sacrifices of the past; and all the hopes of the present and future. Remembering that after the tragedy of Passion Week and Palm Sunday, there comes the Sunrise of Easter. And so my April 9 message is a simple one: Out of the sacrifices of the past, out of the saga of a trip down Memory Lane, there is a thread of steadfastness, of resolution of loyalty to home and family and a pledge that our generation will not be found wanting. My thanks to Bro. Ralph Barlow for a story for April 9.
